October 22, 2004

Dear Sir:

In response to Notice Regarding Change of Power of Attorney dated October 15, 2004, Assignee of the above-referenced application, Diversified Resource Group, Inc., requests that the Revocation of Power of Attorney be vacated in view of the bill of sale and assignment of rights executed on October 2, 2002, as filed for recordation by the USPTO on July 20, 2004, and in view of Assignee's previously filed a statement under 37 CFR 3.73(b), also filed on July 20, 2004. Courtesy copies are attached hereto.

Apparently, inventor James Conerton filed a Revocation of Power of Attorney on October 1, 2004, several months AFTER Assignee's filing of Statement under 3.73(b). Thus, because Mr. Conerton no longer had prosecution rights in the above referenced application, acceptance of his Revocation of Power of Attorney was improper and should be vacated, with restoration of previously granted Powers.

Although the record clarifies the rights of ownership and prosecution of the application, to prevent any further misunderstandings, Assignee has executed a new Power of Attorney and has enclosed same herein.

Respectfully submitted, this 22nd day of October, 2004.
